Weight Room Highlight #2

Developing leadership through example, being a friendly teacher of technique, and a motivating encourager has earned Brodee Sowers the respect of everyone who battles in the weight room to improve their strength. His "You can do it! I believe in you!" attitude has helped numerous teammates and friends increase their desire to improve their strength! Brodee smashed the previous clean record of 275 lbs by cleaning 285 lbs, which gave him a co-efficient of 1.307, also a new school record. The previous record-holder was Robert (Alex) Bechthold (2016). Brodee is currently recovering from a knee injury, but that has not deterred him from being in the weight room. He is a great help and inspiration to the underclassmen! Brodee isn't finished yet. He has tied the school record for back squats and is closing on the bench press and dead lift records as well. In addition, he is eyeing Alex Bechthold's track and field records.... Stay tuned! Plus, next week, we'll take a look at a few other new records set this school year.
